UNFINISHED BUSINESS

1. Oil and Gas appeal update

Mr. Kelly said that there has been no decision yet by the Oil and Gas Commission. He said that Cutter Oil has filed a motion to lift the stay which would allow them to go forward and drill before the decision is made. We have filed a brief in opposition. There has been no ruling on this either. Mr. Kelly said it is his belief that the commission is close to a decision to render and would prefer not to have to rule on the motion to lift the stay.
