REPORTS

Recreation Department

Jason Swim – The city plans to shut down field 3 @ Heasley for maintenance this fall. They will talk to school about using their practice field. The scoreboards will go up June 2-3 for fields 3, 6, and 7 at York.

School Board

Dr. John Kelly – No Report – Absent with cause.

Council

Paul Marnecheck – Parking lot at memorial park is being repaired and the Playground is almost ready to open.

Mayor

Robert Stefanik – The official opening of new playground is this weekend. He said that there will be someone working until 8pm to empty trash cans and such. The new fountain is installed, but they are waiting for CEI to run new electric. There was a discussion among board members about Algea in pond and how copper sulfate or Barley may help control it.

NORTH ROYALTON RECOGNIZED CLUBS:

Baseball: Todd Althouse – York 3 fence repair project causes a couple scheduled games to be moved. NRCS are trying to get company to replace new screen on memorial that ripped. Coed softball registration closes on May 30th. The Rec. Baseball Season started on 5-18-2015.

Soccer: No Report – Mr. Swim spoke about the field repairs at Heasley. The Church group will be restricted to field 2 for their camps this summer.

Basketball: Tom Grassi – Season is over. He will email Mr. Swim the financials within the week.

Volleyball: Tricia Baran – Season is over. They lost in first round of playoffs last week. They had 10 kids in the program this year and won 1 game. Financial report will be ready by June Rec Meeting.

North Royalton Community Garden: Dejana Cinquepalmi - Mulch World donated 10 yards of mulch this year. There are 74 gardeners, 20 families working 40 plots 10x10 at NR Community gardens. They have 13 more gardeners on the waiting list.
