REPORTS

Recreation Department

Jason Swim – Soccer donated $750 to city. They have been slicing and aerating Heasley fields. The city is putting down 96 tons of sand for fields. The city will be ordering diamond pro for Baseball fields. They hope to do 2-3 loads. They plan to install roof on the dugouts on York 8. They met with Ventrac about a fields grooming attachment. This should allow for reconditioning fields in-house. Mr. Swim thinks it will pay for itself very quickly because field reconditioning can be done in-house instead of outsourcing to a third party.

School Board

Dr. John Kelly – Gave Fall Sports Report.

HS Girls Soccer: 10-4-2 Season; 5-1-1 in Conference. They were the Suburban League Champs and won the first Section game.

HS Football: 4-5-0 Season and 3-4-0 in Conference

HS Girls Volleyball: 14-10-0 Season and 12-5-0 Conference. They defeated Wadsworth in the sectional final and will play Brunswick in the District semi-final on Wed 10/26.

HS Boys Cross Country: competed and finished 8th in the Suburban League finals.

Council

Paul Marnecheck – The city is finishing up water main and sidewalk projects next to cemetery. The prescription drop-off program was a huge success – 280 lbs for meds were dropped off. City will allow hunting all year – but the hunter will have to get a nuisance permit for ODNR.

Mayor

Robert Stefanik – Mr. Antoskiewicz gave the report for the mayor. There have been 91 deer taken so far this year. Most were taken in Ward 1.

NORTH ROYALTON RECOGNIZED CLUBS:

Baseball (NRBB): Craig Barbeck – NRBB has a new website going online soon. A few folks from NRBB were also in attendance for the Ventrac demo of a field grooming attachment. They felt it would do a good job on the fields. Mr. Barbeck wanted to let Jason know that the Internet access is not working at the York Rd fields.

Soccer (NRSC): Vince Weimer – The recreation season is over and travel is wrapping up. The NRSC Travel teams went to the Ohio travel cup tournament in Lodi.
